Things to Bring

1. Your Passport - As of January of 2007, You are no longer able to enter Mexico without a passport. In years past you were granted entry if you had an official birth certificate but that is no longer the case.
2. Expense Money -
 - Groceries - $100.00
 - Souvenirs - $50 - $100.00
 - Specials Meals, etc. - Your discretion!
3. Snacks - Our favorites include:
 - Power Bars or Granola Bars
 - Cheese and Crackers
 - Cookies
 - Beef Jerky
 - Canned Meats (Tuna, Sardines, Chicken, etc.)
 - Bottled Water (2 - 3 bottles will do, We'll buy more in Acapulco)
4. Medications - Any prescription medications MUST be in their original containers with your name and your doctors name. We also suggest:
 - Imodium
 - Doctor Tichenors Mouthwash - small bottle - It kills germs really well!
 - Allergy Medications (Hydrocortisone, Benedryl, etc)
 - Phernegan - (for nausea)
 - Dramamine if you are prone to get motion sick riding in the back of a car.

* If you haven't had a tetanus shot within the last ten years, please consider getting one prior to the trip. On occasion, things do happen.
5. Miscellaneous - A few more things to think about while packing:
 - Toilet Paper
 - Germ X hand sanitizer (waterless hand cleaner)
 - Deodorant
 - Toothbrush and Toothpaste
 - Bible and Journal (There are some beautiful places to get alone with God)
 - Shampoo and Soap
 - Pen for travel forms
 - Sunglasses
 - Hat
 - Flashlight
 - Work Gloves
 - Towel and Washcloth
 - Rain Poncho
 - WORK shirts and jeans - 3 - 4 sets
 - WORK shoes or boots (You're gonna get muddy!)
 - Camera and film
 - Insect repellent
 - Fanny / Backpack - to keep important personal items such as your passport, visa, and money secure and close by during the day.
 - Individually wrapped pieces of candy to give to the children or small toys like the free toys your children receive in a 'Happy Meal'.
